Volunteer Opportunities

Many Hands Make Light Work

The Readington Museums are always looking for volunteers to share our passion for living history. We offer a wide variety of volunteer opportunities, one that is sure to match your interests.

Need a way to beef up a resume or college application? Volunteering is a perfect way for High School Juniors and Seniors to gain much-needed experience. Volunteering is family-friendly, though anyone under the age of 18 must have a parent or guardian present.

If interested, contact the Program Director at 908-236-2327. All training and costuming (if required) are provided.

Volunteer Opportunities Include:

- Fence Painting
- Gardening
- Barn Sweeping
- Help with Barn Dance/Program Parking, Signage, and Set-up
- Clean Sign Letters -Can be done at the Bouman-Stickney Farmstead. (a few hours each month)
- Submit Press Releases to Online Media Sites. (Requires a meeting to train and needs a laptop)
- Museum House Cleaning
- Historical Interpretation/Reenacting
- Tour guide for Sunday Open House events
- Hands-on history guides for school tours
- Building Preservation/Carpentry

Dedicated to preserving the future of Readington's past.
